Disabilities. If you have any condition, such as physical or mental disability, that will make it difficult to complete the course or that will require extra time on examinations, notify your lecturer during the first two weeks of class so that appropriate arrangements can be made.

Math Learning Center: (Physics A-125/127) This is located on the A level of the physics building and provides help with pre-calculus material. The same room also contains the Calculus Resource Room where you can go for help with Calculus classes. It is staffed most days and some evenings; an exact schedule will be posted in the room. Note that this room is closed during final exam week. It also gets crowded before exams, so don't wait until the last minute to get help there.

Calculus Online: There are many math sites on the internet. For information on the history of Calculus and short biographies of famous mathematicians, try <http://www-groups.dcs.st-and.ac.uk/~history> and click on History Topics or the Biography Index.
